

DM-433

DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 28 September 1955

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Messrs. Wisner, Amory,
Lloyd, Kirkpatrick, Helms, Bissell, [REDACTED]

Mr. Dulles:

Noted a cable from [REDACTED] (IN 13286) containing a proposal that the US furnish an economic adviser to assist the [REDACTED] administration. Mr. Amory mentioned that he knew a well-qualified man who could do this job and undertook to fill in Mr. Wisner on this individual's background since DD/P is seeing [REDACTED] today. The Director made it clear that CIA should take every advantage of this proposal.

Mr. Kirkpatrick:

a. Noted that Senator Henry Dworshak had been debriefed on the 26th. The Director asked the IG to prepare a letter for his (DCI's) signature, thanking him for his cooperation and expressing regret that he was unable to attend the debriefing.

b. Noted that a subcommittee of the Armed Services Committee plans to visit [REDACTED] in the near future for the purpose of inspecting acquisition of US property. The Director said that in addition to this committee inspecting the [REDACTED] there, he felt an opportunity should be offered to look at our other installations. Mr. Kirkpatrick undertook to make appropriate arrangements with [REDACTED]

Mr. Amory:

[REDACTED]

b. Stated that during a recent 15-day tour of active duty at the Army War College he had had an opportunity to meet and hold discussions with a number of Army officers who had just returned from Attache and other Foreign Service. Mr. Amory said he intended to report fully on these discussions to Messrs. Helms [REDACTED] and noted there was a general complaint on the part of the attache officers that they felt there was a lack of intelligence information flowing from CIA operations ([REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are cases in point.) After some discussion the Director asked DD/P to look into this problem and furnish his recommendations.
